NEWS & EVENTS

November 2011

PROFILES@UMassMed Is Here!

Multi-disciplinary, multi-institution, collaborative teams are becoming increasingly important in biomedical research. As a result, there have been a number of software programs developed to facilitate scientific collaboration. UMassMed, under the sponsorship of the UMassMed Center for Clinical & Translational Research, has implemented the PROFILES¹ research networking software. This system replaces the faculty web page administration application in place since 2000. To learn more...

CVIP Technology Development Fund Winter 2012

The CVIP Technology Development Fund was established by CVIP in the President's Office in 2004 to provide UMass researchers with proof of concept funding to advance previously disclosed University technologies toward commercialization. The Fund is NOT intended to support basic research, but rather to close the gap between the research discovery and proven technology. CVIP is issuing a call for proposals for the 9th Annual CVIP Technology Development Fund. They intend to fund approximately 8 awards up to $25,000 per project for direct project expense. The deadline for submission of proposals is, January 13, 2012. Applications must be submitted by midnight in order to be considered.

Pediatric Academic Societies Travel Stipend Opportunity

This year at the Pediatric Academic Societies meeting (in Boston, April 28 – May 1, 2012) there will be a special opportunity for investigators conducting clinical and translational lifecourse research.

A CTSA Consortium Child Health Overview Committee (CC-CHOC) review panel will select up to four junior investigators conducting high quality life course research to receive a travel stipend to support their attendance to PAS. They will also be connected with an additional mentor from the CC-CHOC mentorship and present at a meeting the day before the PAS begins (April 27th). If you have any questions about CC-CHOC, please contact Dr. Sheri Barkin, Vanderbilt University School of Medicine at 615-322-7080 or shari.barkin@Vanderbilt.Edu. If you have any questions regarding abstract submissions please contact the PAS Office at 281-419-0052 or info@pas-meeting.org.

Community Health & Research: Making the Connections Research Symposium

The First Community Engagement and Research Symposium held November 4th drew an enthusiastic audience of 128 participants from across the commonwealth, representing all UMass campuses and a host of community agencies from Worcester and beyond. The day featured State Senator Harriette L. Chandler's call to participation in the Massachusetts Health Prevention Caucus. A poster session provided networking throughout the day. Panel presentations showcased community research partnerships in the Greater Lawrence area, and provided practical advice from Community Health Center leaders from Worcester, Springfield and Fitchburg on the essentials of strong partnerships between community health centers and community researchers.
