Expanding the IR with Emeritus Publications

Erin Jerome, Open Access & Institutional Repository Librarian, UMass Amherst
Proposed Project:

Work with liaison librarians to pick out one emeritus (or soon-to-be) emeritus faculty member a semester who would like their work to be showcased in ScholarWorks@UMass Amherst.

Create SelectedWorks page for faculty member in addition to adding their work to ScholarWorks.
Test Run 1: Julian Tyson, 2015 Public Engagement Fellow and Professor Emeritus

Tyson’s research focuses on developing reliable methods for individuals to measure arsenic content of food at home.

Selected Works of Peter Elbow

Professor Emeritus, Department of English

Some of these texts are final versions I sent to the publisher—and thus lack some final copy editing from peer reviewers. Comments about any of these essays? You can reach me at elbow@english.umass.edu. Also at 413-545-4273.

I have posted a few chapters from my most recent book (2018) "Vernacular Eloquence: What Speech Can Bring..."

Articles:

- Using Careless Speech for Careful, Well Crafted Writing—Whatever Its Style
  - Peter Elbow
  - I write here to correct a common miseducation of my work: I’ve not been fighting all these years just to...

- Good Enough Evaluation
  - Emeritus Faculty Author Gallery
  - Peter Elbow
  - For inclusion in a collection honors the words I’ve said these past 40 years.
