Expanding the IR with Emeritus Publications

Erin Jerome, Open Access & Institutional Repository Librarian, UMass Amherst
Proposed Project:

Work with liaison librarians to pick out one emeritus (or soon-to-be) emeritus faculty member a semester who would like their work to be showcased in ScholarWorks@UMass Amherst.

Create SelectedWorks page for faculty member in addition to adding their work to ScholarWorks.
Tyson’s research focuses on developing reliable methods for individuals to measure arsenic content of food at home.

Selected Works of Peter Elbow

Professor Emeritus, Department of English

Some of these texts are final versions I sent to the publisher—and thus lack some final copy editing from professional eyes. Comments about any of these essays are welcome. You can reach me at elbow@english.umass.edu. Also at 413-545-4234.

Using Careless Speech for Careful, Well Crafted Writing—Whatever Its Style

Good Enough Evaluation

For inclusion in a collection next year, I had to cut many of my essays and write a new introduction.

Reflections on a Midsummer Night's Dream

In 2001 I taught a summer course on Shakespeare in York, England. Here are reflections on that trip.
