DIGITAL HUMANITIES @ FAIRFIELD UNIVERSITY

Fairfield University
DIGITAL HUMANITIES

Fairfield University's Digital Humanities collection showcases digital scholarship completed by University faculty and students across the humanities. Their innovative work employs digital tools to analyze complex information and represent it in novel ways. The goal of the hub is to contribute to the enduring vitality of the humanities and encourage other faculty members to participate in digital scholarship.

The Fairfield Digital Humanities collection promotes digital scholarship in the humanities, in collaboration with the DIMenna-Nyselius Library and with support from the Humanities Institute in the College of Arts and Sciences.
