Lyrics by Sally Gore

They say we're home and you don't know
How to find that book on cytoflow.
Well I don't know if all that's true
But don't you fret cuz we are here for you.

Hey!
We've got you, hey!
We've got you, hey!

You say the new PubMed's a mess,
The last thing you need is one more bit of stress.
So give us a shout, we've got the zoom,
We can teach through any virtual classroom

Hey!
We've got you, hey!
We've got you, hey!

COVID-19 has changed lots of things,
We've been off campus all through the spring.
But even though, we're not around,
If you've got a question, we can always be found!

You've got a paper, a talk, or a test
We're still here to help you do your best.
Don't let them tell you that we've gone away.
Our doors may be closed, but we are here to stay.

Hey!
We've got you, hey!
We've got you, hey!
We've got you, hey!

You need to know how to cite that quote?
We've got experts in Endnote.
You're coming up on a deadline?
We've got ways to save you time.
You don't know how to start your research?
We've got the tools and we know how to search.
You've got to stay up all night long?
When we get back we'll have the Keurig strong!

Hey!
We've got you, hey!
We've got you, hey!
We've got you, hey!
WE'VE GOT YOU, HEY!!!!
